

Claire Olmstead

My name is Claire Olmstead, and I am a 2021 graduate of Redlands in Global Business with a finance focus. Currently, I am a CFP®-licensed financial advisor entering my fifth year at KWB Wealth, a wealth management firm in Redlands. During my four years at the U of R, I was a member of Delta Kappa Psi, played two years on the women's basketball team, worked as a tutor in the finance department, and studied abroad in Italy and France. In 2025, I celebrated one of my biggest milestones: marrying my high school sweetheart, who is also a Redlands alum. I am excited to serve others and channel my passion into fostering growth, community, and the Redlands spirit through the alumni board.
