

Julian Rice

Julian is from Southern California, where he currently resides and brings more than two decades of leadership experience across technology, healthcare, finance, government, and consumer industries, with a proven record of driving organizational transformation, strategic growth, and talent development. His career is distinguished by roles in Fortune 100 and global companies, where he has consistently demonstrated thought leadership, empathy, inclusiveness, and creativity to direct teams through complex business initiatives. He holds an MBA in Global Business Strategy, Marketing, and Finance from the University of Redlands, a B.A. in Management from CSU San Bernardino, and dual A.A. degrees in Computer Information Systems and Spanish.

A passionate advocate for education, equity, and community impact, Julian is committed to advancing the University of Redlands' mission of fostering innovation, leadership, and service. His global exposure across more than 30 countries and his dedication to mentoring the next generation of leaders uniquely positions him to contribute meaningfully to the Alumni Board's governance and strategic initiatives.

Beyond his professional pursuits, Julian enjoys spending time with family & friends, traveling, mentoring emerging professionals, volunteering, fitness, sports, engaging in financial markets, and lifelong learning. He looks forward to dedicating his time, energy, and expertise to strengthen the Redlands alumni network and advance the University's long-term vision.
