"ADDIE"

UNIVERSITY OF REDLANDS OFFICIAL BULLDOG MASCOT

Born April 5, 2017, Adelaide (a.k.a. "Addie") is the first female mascot in University of Redlands history! She was named for the founding first lady of the University, and was crowned as official mascot at a home basketball game on January 20, 2018. Addie enjoys playing tug-of-war, looking for snacks, and encouraging more animal adoptions.

Connect with Addie online @URmascot

To request Addie's autograph, schedule her appearance at an event, make a gift in support of the Mascot Fund, and much more, visit www.redlands.edu/adelaide.

University of Redlands is a private, nonprofit university that connects students to a world of opportunity, geared toward their passions and potential. Centrally located near the beaches, mountains, and desert in the heart of Southern California, the award-winning 160-acre campus features orange groves, architectural landmarks, and more than 1,700 trees. Surveys show that generations of alumni have found that the University, established in 1907, prepared them well for career success and lifelong learning.

The "Och Tamale" cheer, originally called the Psalm of Collegiate Thanksgiving, was written by cheerleader C. Merle Waterman '20 and classmates Walter J. Richards '21 and Jack Slutsk '22. The Och Tamale is recited when the Bulldogs score a touchdown, at Homecoming and alumni events, and as a greeting to fellow alumni on campus, across the nation, and around the world.
