About the Directors

Dr. Eddie R. Smith, Director of Bands and Professor of Saxophone and Music Education, currently conducts the Wind Ensemble, Chamber Winds Ensemble, and teaches Advanced Instrumental and Graduate Conducting as well as classes in Music Education. He is also fortunate to have an extremely active studio of award winning saxophonists. Prior to joining the faculty at the University of Redlands in 1991, Dr. Smith served as Director of Bands at the University of Wyoming where he also served as state chair for both the College Band Directors National Association and the National Band Association, as well as research chair for the Wyoming Music Educators. During his 19 year tenure at the University of Redlands, Dr. Smith also taught classes in Administration and Supervision and served as Conductor of the University Orchestra. During this time he also conducted numerous Musical Theater and Opera productions. Dr. Smith actively supports and encourages new compositions and continues to be involved in numerous commissioning projects. He is ongoing president of the Sigma Chapter of Pi Kappa Lambda and is a member of MENC, CBDA, CBDNA, SCSBOA and remains extremely active as a guest conductor, clinician and adjudicator.

James E. Benanti, is currently in his eighth year as Director of Instrumental Music at Redlands High School where he directs the Symphonic Band, Wind Ensemble, String Ensemble, Jazz Band, and Marching Band. Concert groups under his direction have performed throughout the United States and in Europe. Mr. Benanti holds Bachelor of Music and Master of Music degrees in Music Education from the University of Redlands. He is an active member of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and the Southern California School Band and Orchestra Association. In addition to his duties at Redlands High School, Mr. Benanti currently serves as President of the San Bernardino County Music Educators' Association.
