Biography

Dr. Edith A. Copley is a Regents' Professor and the Director of Choral Studies at Northern Arizona University where she conducts the Shrine of the Ages Choir, teaches conducting and graduate choral literature and supervises graduate choral conducting lecture-recitals. Choirs under her direction have performed at numerous choral conferences, in Carnegie Hall, and have toured internationally.

Prior to her appointment at NAU, she taught secondary choral music in the Midwest and later in Vienna, Austria at the American International School. Dr. Copley has received numerous honors, including the NAU Centennial Teacher of the Year, Arizona Music Educator of the Year, Arizona ACDA Outstanding Choral Director, and The Weston H. Noble Award from her alma mater, Luther College. Dr. Copley has served ACDA as President of the Western Division and Arizona, Western Division and Arizona newsletter editor, and Interest Session Chair for the 2013 and 2019 ACDA National Conferences.

Dr. Copley has her own choral series with Santa Barbara Music Publishing and is in high demand as a clinician and guest conductor. She has conducted all-state choirs in over 30 states, national honor choirs in Carnegie Hall, and international choral festivals in Germany, the Netherlands, Japan, Luxembourg, Tasmania, England, Australia, China, Oman, and Turkey.
