Jace Elliot, violin

2022 Concerto Competition Winner

Jace Elliott is a violinist based in Southern California, where he attended the University of Redlands from 2018 to 2022 for a Bachelor of Music degree in violin performance with a minor in the German language. He presently studies with Samuel Fischer, with whom he first worked at the Montecito International Music Festival in 2018. While at the University of Redlands, Jace had the privilege of playing with the Redlands Symphony Orchestra as well as winning performing opportunities in both the school's President's Honor Recital and concerto competition in 2022. He currently works as a music instructor and gigging musician.

Conservatory of Music Land Acknowledgement

We are gathered on the land of the Serrano and Cahuilla peoples, and we acknowledge the important contributions of this community, their elders both past and present, as well as future generations. The University of Redlands Conservatory of Music is committed to continuing to learn about the land we inhabit, the people who have been displaced from this land, and building community with its original caretakers.
